

Poetry Terms

1. literal language--words or expressions using their ordinary meanings
2. figurative language--fresh and imaginative use of words departing from their ordinary meanings. Examples follow:
3. alliteration--repetition of consonant sounds

EX:

4. assonance--repetition of vowel sounds

EX:

5. hyperbole--a huge exaggeration

EX:

6. metaphor--a comparison of two different things without the use of "like" or "as"

EX:

7. simile--a comparison of two unlike things using "like" or "as"

EX:

8. onomatopoeia--words formed that imitates sounds (hiss, sizzle)

EX:

9. oxymoron--contradictory terms (awfully tasty, bitterly happy)

EX:

10. personification--words/language where human characteristics are given to non-human things

EX:

